FISH BLOCKS FROM ICELAND

Determination of No Sales at Less Than Fair Value

JUNE 9, 1960.

A complaint was received that fish blocks from Iceland were being sold to the United States at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act of 1921.

I hereby determine that fish blocks from Iceland are not being, nor are likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value within the meaning of section 201(a) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(a)).

Statement of reasons. The fish blocks in question were imported by a subsidiary of the foreign seller and were not resold in the United States in their imported condition, being further processed by the importer into fish portions, fish sticks, and similar products. Under these circumstances, exporter's sales price, which is the applicable basis of comparison, does not exist and the Antidumping Act has no application.

This determination and the statement of reasons therefor are published pursuant to section 201(c) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(c)).

[SEAL] A. GILMORE FLUES,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.
