HOW TO FIND U.S. STATUTES and U.S. CODE CITATIONS

This pamphlet contains typical legal reference situations which require further citing. Official published volumes in which the citations may be found are shown alongside each reference—with suggestions as to the logical sequence to follow in using them to make the search. Additional finding aids, some especially useful in citing current material, also have been included. Examples are furnished at pertinent points and a list of reference titles, with descriptions, is carried at the end.

Price: 10 cents.

BICYCLES FROM ITALY

Fair Value Determination

OCTOBER 19, 1964.

An allegation was received that bicycles from Italy, manufactured by Cesare Rizzato & C. s.n.c., Padova, Italy, were being sold in the United States at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act of 1921.

I hereby determine that bicycles from Italy, manufactured by Cesare Rizzato & C. s.n.c., Padova, Italy, are not being, nor likely to be, sold at less than fair value within the meaning of section 201(a) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(a)).

Statement of reasons. All transactions were outright purchases. No relationship within the meaning of section 207 of the Antidumping Act existed between the seller and buyers. The quantities sold in the home market were adequate as a basis for comparison. It was determined, therefore, that the appropriate fair value comparison was between purchase price and adjusted home market price.

Purchase price was calculated on the basis of the manufacturer's export price list less inland charges, less certain applicable trade discounts, and less a cash discount.

Adjusted home market price was calculated on the basis of the manufacturer's home market price list, less inland charges, plus export packing, less certain applicable trade discounts, and less a cash discount. Other adjustments were made to the home market price for the cost of any differences in equipment or accessories between the bicycles sold in the home market and those exported to the United States.

Although the comparison revealed that the purchase price was less than adjusted home market price, sales at such prices have ceased, and the manufacturer has given his assurances that no further sales will be made in which the purchase price will be less than the adjusted home market price.

As to sales involving margins made before the receipt of the assurances, it was determined that the quantities involved were not more than insignificant.

This determination and the statement of reasons therefor are published pursuant to section 201(c) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(c)).

[SEAL] JAMES A. REED,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.
