COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

HARRY L. WINGATE, JR., CHIEF CLERK

June 29, 1959

Mr. Paul F. Royster,
Assistant to the Federal Highway Administrator,
Bureau of Public Roads,
Department of Commerce,
Washington 25, D. C.

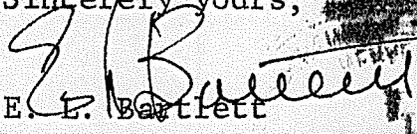

Dear Mr. Royster:

Reference is made to our correspondence early in 1958 in which it was concluded that Alaska was not then eligible to share in the authorizations of funds for Public Lands Highways under section 5 of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1958. Your last letter to me on this subject was dated May 27, 1958, File No. 26-12.

As you may know, the so-called Alaska Omnibus Act was signed into Public Law 86-70 last week. Section 21 of that law (copy enclosed) treats Alaska on the same basis as the other states under the ABC road program, effective July 1, 1959. The allocations to Alaska under the full program will commence with the 1961 fiscal year.

This letter is written to ascertain whether under this new status Alaska will be eligible to apply for allocations in the 1961 fiscal year and any subsequent year later covered into the Public Lands Highways program. It is my understanding that applications under this program are based on administrative decision as to allocation rather than on any formula, and it is my further belief that any funds made available can be used for both construction and maintenance. If Alaska is now eligible under the Public Lands Highways program, I should appreciate having any details as to what procedure should be followed to make application under the 1961 fiscal year allocation. Any information you could supply would be welcome.

Sincerely yours,

E. L. Bartlett

JUL 7 1959

Honorable E. L. Bartlett
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Bartlett:

This is in reply to your letter of June 29, 1959, concerning the eligibility of the State of Alaska to share in funds authorized for public lands highways.

In view of the Alaska Statehood Act and the Alaska Omnibus Act, the State of Alaska is now eligible to share in funds available for public lands highways.

As stated in my letter of May 27, 1958, to you on this subject, funds authorized to be appropriated for public lands highways are allocated among the States on the basis of need as determined by the Secretary of Commerce upon the application of the State highway departments. Under the law such funds are available to pay the cost of maintaining, as well as the cost of constructing, such highways. It should be noted, however, that the amounts made available for public lands highways are so small in comparison to the number of requests received that all allocations of such funds thus far have been for construction only.

If the State of Alaska wishes to request the Secretary's consideration of a project for the improvement of a public lands highway, utilizing Federal lands funds authorized by the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1958 for the fiscal year 1961, it should submit such request through the Bureau of Public Roads Regional Engineer at Juneau. This request should be fully supported by factual data covering the type and condition of the existing road, the present volume and character of traffic and that estimated in the future, together with an explanation as to the availability or lack of other funds to finance the project. Such a request will be carefully evaluated, along with all similar requests received from the other States, and a determination will be made by the Secretary as to the relative priority of need of the several requests, for allocations from the limited amount of Federal lands funds authorized for the fiscal year 1961. The usual time for the next allocation of public lands funds would be during the last half of the fiscal year 1960.

Sincerely yours,

Paul F. Royster
Assistant to the Federal Highway Administrator

Action to be taken as result of enactment of Alaska Omnibus Act (Public Law 86-70)

This is in confirmation of recent discussions concerning the action to be taken as a result of the enactment of the Alaska Omnibus Act, which was approved by the President on June 25, 1959. In order to implement the Act, in accordance with the intent of the Congress, it is essential that certain actions be taken at the earliest possible date.

The Under Secretary of Commerce for Transportation appeared at hearings held by the House and Senate Committees on May 4 and May 7, 1959, with respect to this matter, and testified as follows:

"Since enactment of the Federal Aid Highway Act of 1956, when the Department of Commerce acquired the functions and property of the former Alaska Road Commission from the Department of the Interior, the Bureau of Public Roads has performed highway functions in Alaska which are normally performed by the State highway department. [The bill] is designed to permit the State of Alaska to assume these functions in an orderly manner, and to accomplish the transition without interruption of or interference with the road program."

Accomplishing this transition without interruption of or interference with the road program in Alaska will involve a number of problems and difficulties. The most critical and immediate of these problems results from the fact that the Alaska Omnibus Act repeals, effective July 1, 1959, the existing laws under which the Bureau of Public Roads has performed the functions of a State highway department in Alaska. Under sections 119 and 120(h) of title 23, United States Code, which are repealed, effective July 1, 1959, the Secretary of Commerce, through the Bureau of Public Roads, administered and performed the functions and duties pertaining to the construction, repair and maintenance of roads, etc., in Alaska.

The budget of the Bureau of Public Roads was prepared upon the assumption that the Alaska Omnibus Act would be enacted. Accordingly, the budget did not provide funds, after July 1, 1959, for those employees engaged in the construction, repair and maintenance of Federal-aid highways in Alaska under the laws repealed by the Alaska Omnibus Act.

The Alaska State Highway Department is not capable, at the present time, of either assuming the functions and duties pertaining to the construction, repair and maintenance of roads which heretofore have been performed by the Bureau of Public Roads, or of absorbing the employees who will be removed from the payroll of the Bureau.

In the absence of immediate and affirmative action, these circumstances will have two results: First, the construction, repair and maintenance of roads in Alaska will substantially cease, except for contracts awarded prior to the date of the Act and not yet completed. Second, the competent and efficient organization of the Bureau of Public Roads which now exists in Alaska will rapidly disseminate, since a substantial part of the employees removed from the payroll will leave Alaska, or accept employment with other organizations or industries, or make other personal arrangements. The cessation of road construction, repair and maintenance in Alaska, even for a temporary period, is not in accord with the objectives of the Alaska Omnibus Act nor the intent of the Congress. The dissemination of the employees of the Bureau of Public Roads is not only an undue hardship upon such employees but also, because of the shortage of qualified personnel in Alaska, creates difficulties with respect to the later creation of an organization, either State or Federal, for the resumption of the functions and duties of road construction, repair and maintenance in Alaska.

At the time the Congress considered and enacted the Alaska Omnibus Act, it was aware of these problems. Accordingly, section 44 of the Act provides for transitional grants of funds to Alaska, and provides two methods whereby Federal agencies may continue to perform functions in Alaska. In order to obviate the problems outlined above, it will be recommended that the Department of Commerce follow the procedures outlined in section 44(c) of the Act, which reads as follows:

"After the transfer or conveyance to the State of Alaska of any property or function pursuant to the Act of July 7, 1958 (72 Stat. 339), providing for the admission of the State of Alaska into the Union, or pursuant to this Act or any other law, and until June 30, 1964, the head of the Federal agency having administrative jurisdiction of such property prior to its transfer or conveyance may contract with the State of Alaska for the performance by such agency, on a reimbursable basis, of some or all of the functions authorized to be performed by it in Alaska immediately preceding such conveyance or transfer."

It is to be noted that under this subsection the authority to contract for the performance of functions is granted only "After the transfer or conveyance to the State of Alaska of any property or function * * *." (Emphasis added). Section 21(a) of the Act directs the Secretary of Commerce to convey to the State of Alaska, without consideration but upon such terms and conditions as he may deem desirable, all property owned, held, administered by, or used by the Secretary in connection with the activities of the Bureau of Public Roads in Alaska, with certain exceptions.

In order to avoid the cessation of highway activities and the dissemination of qualified personnel, as discussed above, it is anticipated that it will be recommended that the following action be taken by July 1, 1959:

(a) The Secretary of Commerce, under authority of section 21(a) of the Act, will convey to the State of Alaska the interests of the Department of Commerce in all property owned, held, administered by or used by the Secretary in connection with the activities of the Bureau of Public Roads in Alaska, except such properties as may be determined are needed for the future operations, activities and functions of the Bureau of Public Roads.

(b) Having complied with the conditions of section 44(c) of the Act (quoted above), it will then be possible to immediately enter into a contract for the performance, by the Bureau of Public Roads, on a reimbursable basis, of the functions and duties pertaining to the construction, repair and maintenance of roads in Alaska, until the time when the Alaska Highway Department may reasonably be expected to assume those functions and duties.

It is anticipated that documents to accomplish this recommendation will be presented to the Secretary of Commerce for approval on June 29, 1959. The limited time available for review and consideration are deeply regretted; however, this was unavoidable because official action should be taken by July 1, 1959, but no official action could be taken until after the Alaska Omnibus Act was signed (which occurred on June 25, 1959), and until after the State of Alaska concurred in the proposed action. You may rest assured, however, that the Bureau of Public Roads has been devoting serious study and effort toward this problem for the past five or six months.

It is presently expected that the documents necessary to accomplish this recommendation will consist of the following:

(a) An instrument conveying the personal property (including motor vehicles, road machinery, etc.) owned or held by the Bureau in Alaska, and not needed for future activities. The instrument will incorporate by reference an inventory of such personal property.

(b) An instrument conveying the real property owned, held or administered by the Secretary which will not be needed for the future activities of the Bureau of Public Roads. The instrument will incorporate by reference an inventory of all such real property, divided into three categories: highway rights-of-way, improved real property, and unimproved real property other than highway rights-of-way.

(c) A contract whereby the Bureau of Public Roads undertakes to perform, on a reimbursable basis, the functions and duties pertaining to the construction, repair and maintenance of roads in Alaska until Alaska can assume such functions and duties.

It is expected that the consent of the State of Alaska to the form and content of the property conveyance instruments and the signature of the Governor of the State of Alaska on the road construction, repair and maintenance contract will be obtained before the same are submitted to the Department.

If the Department approves this procedure, one further problem remains. Section 21(a) directs the Secretary to convey the specified property to Alaska, except such property "as he or the head of any other Federal agency may determine are needed for continued retention in Federal ownership for purposes other than or in addition to road purposes".

It is obviously unrealistic to expect that the Federal agencies could determine, within the time limits contemplated by the proposal, the properties which should be retained in Federal ownership. In order to meet this problem, it is proposed to have the instruments referred to above drafted in such form as to convey real property to Alaska on a defeasible basis—that is, individual parcels of property will be subject to return to the Federal Government upon application of any Federal agency pursuant to the provisions of section 21(a) of the Act. In order to allow the several Federal agencies a reasonable opportunity to make the determination, it will be suggested that the provisions of the General Services Administration regulations concerning screening of excess real property be generally followed. Under this procedure, each Federal agency (including the Department of Commerce) would be given 60 days within which to apply for specific parcels of real property, and an additional time within which to make formal application for actual conveyance to it of the real property involved. This procedure has proved to be satisfactory, and will protect the interests of the Federal Government.

In the opinion of the Bureau of Public Roads, the procedures and actions outlined above will provide a satisfactory solution to the difficult problems now confronting the State of Alaska and the Federal Government with respect to the highway program in Alaska, and are in accord with the objectives of the Alaska Omnibus Act and the intent of Congress. The recommendations are the product of long and serious study by the Bureau of Public Roads, and it is our present understanding that they are acceptable to the State of Alaska.

It is earnestly requested that you give serious consideration to these proposals. If you desire any further information or material please let us know.

CONTRACT FOR THE BUREAU OF PUBLIC ROADS, UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, TO PERFORM CERTAIN HIGHWAY
FUNCTIONS AND SERVICES FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA

THIS INDENTURE made, entered into, and effective as of July 1, 1959, by and between the Federal Highway Administrator acting for and in behalf of the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Commerce, hereinafter referred to as the "Administrator", and the Governor of Alaska acting for and in behalf of the Department of Public Works, State of Alaska, hereinafter referred to as the "Governor",

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, in accordance with Section 21 of the Act approved by the President on June 25, 1959, (73 Stat 141), the Secretary of Commerce on June 30, 1959, transferred and conveyed to the State of Alaska all properties owned, held, administered or used by the Secretary in connection with the activities of the Bureau of Public Roads in Alaska except those properties otherwise needed by the Bureau of Public Roads to perform its usual Federal and Federal-aid highway functions, and

WHEREAS, the Governor is desirous that the Bureau of Public Roads shall continue for a time to perform certain highway survey, design, construction and maintenance functions in connection with the Federal-aid highway program until the State Department of Public Works is empowered and suitably organized and equipped to perform these functions, and

WHEREAS, the Administrator is authorized under Section 44(c) of said Act of June 25, 1959, to contract with the State of Alaska for the performance by the Bureau of Public Roads on a reimbursable basis, until

June 30, 1964, some or all of the functions that it was authorized to perform in Alaska immediately preceding the aforesaid transfer or conveyance of said properties.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is mutually agreed as follows:

1. The Bureau of Public Roads shall continue to construct projects on the Federal-aid highway systems in Alaska, maintain highways on said systems, and perform all other functions necessary in connection therewith in like manner as heretofore, and, with respect to Federal-aid matters, in accordance with Federal-aid regulations and procedures to the extent applicable to Alaska.

2. At the request of the Administrator, the Governor from time to time shall transfer to the Bureau of Public Roads, funds sufficient to finance the costs of performing the functions provided for herein. All such funds shall be placed in a Trust Fund and used by the Bureau of Public Roads solely for the purpose of paying such costs.

3. The Bureau of Public Roads shall submit at least monthly, a written report to the Governor of all expenditures made by the Bureau in the performance of its functions hereunder during the period covered by the report. The report shall be in such detail as to fully inform the State of all expenditures from the Trust Fund, and the status of the work provided for herein.

4. Reimbursement to the State of the authorized Federal participating share of expenditures made by the Bureau of Public Roads in the performance of its functions hereunder shall be in accordance with Federal-aid procedures and by use of the Federal-aid voucher form.

5. For the purposes of carrying out the functions provided for herein, the Governor hereby grants to the Administrator exclusive custody, control and jurisdiction over and the right to use the property and pertinent records heretofore conveyed to the State by the Secretary of Commerce. Such custody, control, jurisdiction and use shall include the authority to repair and maintain such property, to incorporate road building materials in highway construction and maintenance work, and to utilize parts, supplies and other expendable items, and shall continue so long as the property and records are needed by the Bureau of Public Roads to perform any of these functions.

6. Upon completion of performance by the Bureau of Public Roads for the State of Alaska of all the functions provided for herein, or at such earlier time as the Trust Fund may no longer be needed, any unobligated sums therein shall be returned to the State and said Trust Fund terminated.

IT IS FURTHER UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED:

1. That the financial responsibility for the Bureau employees exercising fringe benefits, such as annual leave and return to home station, shall be determined on an equitable basis. Charges against funds available prior to July 1, 1959, shall be on the basis of such fringe benefits earned prior to said date. Such fringe benefits earned on and after July 1, 1959, shall be charged to the Trust Fund.

2. That upon receipt of notice by the Administrator from the Governor that the State Department of Public Works has adequate powers and is suitably equipped and organized, and desires to perform some or all of the aforesaid functions, arrangements shall be made for the Bureau of Public Roads to terminate its performance thereof as promptly as is reasonably possible, and to release to the State the custody, control and jurisdiction over property relating to said function or functions. In that regard it is understood that any such function or functions returned to the State shall, to the extent feasible, consist of a complete unit of work or activity and comprise a specific area or road division so as to avoid any over-lapping areas of administration. That as Alaska assumes any of the functions herein to be performed by the Bureau of Public Roads, the Bureau shall adjust its personnel consistent with the requirements for performance of the remaining functions.

3. The provisions of this contract are not intended to limit in any way the performance of any services by the Bureau of Public Roads under the provisions of Title 23 United States Code, Section 308, or other Federal law in existence prior to July 1, 1959.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed this instrument as of the day and year first above written.
