SIXTEENTH DECENNIAL CENSUS—PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT

The population of Dillingham village (Judicial Division, recording district, town, or village) as of October 1, 1939, according to a preliminary count of the returns for the Sixteenth Census, was 277, as compared with 85 on October 1, 1929. The number of farms (including truck, dairy, poultry, and fur farms) reported for this area for 1939 was . (A "farm," as the term is used for census purposes, either must be at least three acres in size or must have produced crops and/or animal products to the value of at least $250 in 1939.)

The above figures are released by authority of the Director of the Census.
Those relating to 1939 are subject to revision after the final check of the returns.

Dear Miss Tiber:

Enclosed find census for Snag Point, Wood River, Squaw Creek Kanakanak, Dillingham. First thought it would be waste of my time but found the contact valuable for future work. Found numerous prenatal, advise given appreciated.
