Enclosed is a map showing the location of active winter trails with sections maintained by the Alaska Road Commission, excepting that at St. Michael. That in red represents those portions for which we provide maintenance funds.

The trail from Kotzebue to Selawik appears to be the most heavily traveled. The Commissioner at Kotzebue reports that up to 400 persons used this trail last winter.

In response to your telephone call the following information has been gathered concerning the Golovin-Elim Trail.

1. The total length is 27 miles (scaled from the map) of which 6 miles has been staked each winter by the ARC.

2. Based upon previous contract prices this additional staking will cost:

21 miles @ $5 - $105.00

3. Local bush pilots who fly regularly in the vicinity of Golovin-Elim state that none of them have requested the staking of this trail as an aid to navigation. All state that rough terrain makes flying along the trail hazardous when visibility is poor. Possibly the person requesting the trail staking threw this in as additional evidence to support the need for the trail.

There follows a description of the winter trails maintained by the ARC.

Trail	Maintained by ARC	Length
Kotzebue-Shesholik(Shesualek)	Full length	9 miles

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of May 18, 1954, inquiring about payment due Lester Callahorn for staking of winter trails.

This work is under the jurisdiction of Mr. John Cooley, District Engineer in charge of the Nome District. Mr. Cooley has been contacted and he advises that Callahorn had never reported the work complete, however, he has now mailed a voucher to him and payment will be processed promptly.

Very truly yours,

Is this one of Coolidge jobs?

May 18, 1954.

To the Alaska Road Commissioner
Juneau Alaska.

Dear Sir

Twice in recent times Lester Callahorn of this village has requested me to write you and explain that he has not yet received pay for staking the winter trails around here. Just as to which trails I am not fully informed. I believe it may be the trail from Kotzebue to Shhsaulik and the trail from Lockhart's point to the Noatak River mouth and possibly the trail from Sing-ae-rae-chaerk across the Kobuk Lake to the Reilly Channel mouth.

Would you please inform him what has to be done to enable him to receive the pay for the work.

Yours for Lester Callahorn
