Dear Sir:

As per instructions in your telegram of the 28th, we have paid George Hutchinson, Treasurer Divisional Road Commission, the sum of $2275.00 for account of construction and maintenance of shelter cabins. We have charged your account this amount, and herewith enclose receipt.

We have also charged your account the sum of $9000.00 account payment to George Hutchinson, Treasurer of Road Commission, for account of balance on your telegram of August, 23rd, and herewith enclose you receipt.

The telegram as originally received by us read; "payment of one-thousand". Upon receipt of your telegram of the 28th, we had the Signal corps people make the correction.

I wish to make the following suggestion, which you might use if you think proper. At the end of all telegrams you send us concerning payments, you to add, total payment or payments not over....., which in the case of your telegram of the 23rd would have read not over $10,000.00, in which event we would have noticed the discrepancy and taken the matter up immediately.

Yours truly,

Cashier.
