In accordance with your wire of November 19th we have paid H. S. Balderston, Divisional Road Treasurer, $5,000 charging your account with like sum.

We judge from your telegram that you are forwarding $5,000 to the First National Bank, Seattle, to be credited to our account, upon receipt of advice we will credit this $5,000.00 back to your Treasurer's account.

Will you kindly advise us if this is correct. In the future if you would prefer, you may just advise us to credit the Divisional Road Treasurer with the amount you wish transferred and advise us that you are forwarding the same to First National Bank, and we will charge the First National Bank without the necessity of putting it thro your account, if this is satisfactory to you.

Under date of July 12th last, you informed Mr. Theile, Secretary of the Territorial Board of Road Commissioners, that there was balance of $9.00 standing to your credit as Treasurer of the Divisional Road Commission, doubtless due to lost warrant for such amount.

If the warrant is still outstanding, I think it advisable that the amount be recovered into the Territorial Treasury. Doubtlessly the warrant is hopelessly lost by this time and the holder seems not to have made application for a duplicate.
