"Aside from the nation's largest oil field, the primary attraction at the end of the road is the Arctic Ocean. But if the rest of the haul road is ever opened to general traffic, tourism promoters who try to offer a 'Drive to the Arctic Ocean' package may run into a roadblock.

The state highway ends about 10 miles from the Beaufort Sea and without permission from the oil companies, tourists will never get closer to the Arctic Ocean than the cluster of aging mobile homes in downtown Deadhorse."
